

22nd March 2021

Dear Parents/Carers,

Governors are pleased to be announcing that Mr Andrew Jones will be joining the school as the new Head of School at King Harold. Mr Jones will work alongside Executive Headteacher Mr Fisher, who will remain at the school full time.

Mr Jones has previously served as a deputy headteacher at a large multi academy trust and has been their area head of teaching and learning. He will bring in a new set of skills to complement those already held within the leadership team. A photo of Mr Jones and a brief biography can be located on the school website.

We very much look forward to his arrival and for events where you will be able to meet with him in person as soon as things start to get back to some form of normality later in the year.

Yours faithfully

Dick Brown
Chair of Governors

Dear Parents/Carers

I hope you are well and hopefully able to enjoy some nicer weather with unseasonably warmer temperatures due over the next few days.

Mr Steven Fisher and King Harold's Governors are pleased to advise that we successfully appointed a new Head of School for King Harold Academy, following a two day process the week before half-term. We have had to wait for the necessary arrangements with his current employers to take place before being able to announce his identity to you.

I am very pleased to say that we are now in a position to do so.

Andrew Jones - Head of School

Andrew is currently a Deputy Headteacher and Teaching and Learning Advisor working for a multi-academy trust. Andrew's teaching specialism is English. He has been teaching in secondary schools since 2005 and has been a senior leader for the last 6 years. In his most recent role, Andrew has been working with schools in London and Daventry, leading teacher development and curriculum design and implementation, alongside his role as Deputy Headteacher of a school in Buckinghamshire. Andrew is looking forward to joining King Harold Academy as the Head of School after Easter and working with you all.

Hopefully you will all have an opportunity to catch up with him in person before too long!
