

19th July 2022

Dear Parents/Carers

Once again, we apologize for the cancellation of the welcome evening on Monday evening and for any inconvenience caused.

Due to the welcome evening being cancelled, you were not able to hand in your Home School Agreement Booklet. This booklet contains vital information for us a school to upload your child's details onto our school system for September.

Please could we ask that you hand in this booklet fully completed to our school office by 12:25 on Thursday 21st July.

Our school uniform suppliers, Forest Casuals, have given us the following shop address and website links for you to order uniform from. Forest Casuals have informed us that they have limited staff in August in the shop, so advise visiting before this.
